

BISONS' STREAK STOPS AFTER TENTH VICTORY

Birds Win First Game Yesterday—Wings and Royals Break Even

Buffalo, July 14. — The Buffalo Bisons' winning streak of ten straight games went boom in the first game of a double-header here this afternoon, when the Baltimore Orioles gave Jim Faulkner, star southpaw, a severe cuffing, and won by a score of 11 to 6. The Bisons came back in the second, and got a stand-off, before 10,000 spectators, by winning out, 4 to 2. George Fisher's twenty-fifth circuit blow of the year, which tied "Bip" Collins for the league leadership, featured the second game.

BLACK CATS WIN ONE.

Rochester, July 14. — Jersey City and Rochester divided honors in a double-header here today, the Red Wings winning the opener, 6 to 5, while the Black Cats staged a batting attack to crip the second, 7 to 2. In the latter game, Henderson was in brilliant form, holding the opposing batsmen to two scattered hits. Errors prevented him from scoring a shut-out. Both teams were in a battling mood in the first game, and Berly just managed to survive a three-run ninth-inning rally on the part of the Cats.

ROYALS AND KEYS BREAK EVEN.

Montreal, July 14.—The Royals and the Keystones divided the closing double-header of their six-game series here this afternoon before a crowd of over 17,000 persons. The Keys captured the first game, 11-2, and the Royals took the shortened nightcap, 12-2. The clubs broke even on the six games played during the current visit of the Keys.

After being knocked out of the box in the third inning of the first game, the victim of a furious Reading attack and his own wildness, Elam Vangilder came back and hurled great ball in the second contest, while the Royals came into their own to slaughter two Keystone hurlers.

Forty hits, twelve of them for extra-bases, including a home run by Taylor, Reading third-sacker, in the first contest, were banged out by the rival factions. Billy Urbanski, who leads the International League in two-baggers, added four doubles to his total today, getting three in four times up in the first game. Bill Jurgens, Reading shortstop, was tossed out of the second game in the third inning, for disputing a second strike.

B.B.C.C. WAR CANOE BEATS TORONTO C.C.

East Enders Sweep Card at Annual Regatta Held Saturday

Balmy Beach Canoe Club held its annual regatta on Saturday and the East Enders achieved a great desire, for their war canoe finished first, ahead of the Toronto Canoe Club. Beaches' victory evens the score of victories between the club in this event, each having won twice this season. Beaches finished first at the Humber, T.C.C. first at their own regatta and the Dominion Day race and now Saturday's result evens the count. Balmy Beach practically swept the card on Saturday afternoon, winning six firsts in the eight events to amass a total of 32 points. Parkdale C.C. was second with 17, T.C.C. third with 9 and Island A.A. fourth with 2.

Despite the rain, the events were held in comparatively smooth water, but the carnival and dance which were to have followed were not completely carried through. A novelty regatta will be held on the lake in front of the clubhouse tonight, with the entertainment planned for Saturday following.

Next Saturday senior four crews of the local clubs will compete at the Parkdale C.C. regatta for the Washington International Shield that P.C.C. is now defending.

Saturday's results follow:
 Senior singles—1. Roy Nurse, B.B.C.C.; 2. Kirk Thompson, P.C.C.; 3. Longstaff, P.C.C.
 Intermediate tandem—1. Evans and Lowry, B.B.C.C.; 2. Rldpath and Rldpath, T.C.C.; 3. Longstaff and Burns, P.C.C.
 Intermediate fours—1. B.B.C.C.; 2. P.C.C.; 3. I.A.A.
 Senior fours—1. B.B.C.C.; 2. P.C.C.
 Junior war canoe—1. T.C.C.
 Senior tandem—1. Nurse and Porter, B.B.C.C.; 2. Saunders and Thompson, P.C.C.; 3. Longstaff and Bradley, P.C.C.
 Junior tandem—1. Longstaff and Burns, P.C.C.; 2. McKnight and Meecham, B.B.C.C.; 3. I.A.A.
 Senior war canoe—1. B.B.C.C.; 2. T.C.C.; 3. P.C.C.

JONES IS SECRETIVE ABOUT CHARITY MATCH

Who, When, Where Not Divulged by Atlanta Golf Wizard

Atlanta, Ga., July 14.—Robert Tyra Jones, the Atlanta golfing lawyer, will play "somebody some sort of charity golf match" in Los Angeles Aug. 23 during his trip west for the national amateur. Aside from that indefinite description nearly anybody is as good a guesser as the national open champion about what kind of match it will be and who else will be in it.

"Probably so," he said tonight when asked to confirm a report that he had been matched to play with George Von Elm against the Britishers, Cyril Tolley and Angus Storey.

Grand Circuit Races Are Postponed by Rain

Toledo, July 14.—The final program of Grand Circuit races, scheduled for Fort Miami Park on Saturday, was halted by rain. The horses were shipped to Kalamazoo, Mich., where racing will be resumed Monday.

Cornell-Princeton Team Meets Oxford-Cambridge

Princeton, N.J., July 14. — Track and field athletes from Oxford and Cambridge will arrive in Princeton tomorrow to begin a five-day period of training with Cornell and Princeton runners, whom they will oppose at Travers Island on Saturday in the fourth international competition involving the combined teams of the English universities against the joint forces of the Ithacans and the Orange and Blacks.
